

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

U.S. Army veteran and finance professional combining equity research, accounting, financial analysis, and more than five years inside mission-critical data center operations. Applies disciplined research to company fundamentals, valuation, industry structure, capital allocation, and risk.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Coronado Historical Association Executive & Finance Assistant

May 2026 - Present

Support accrual accounting, reconciliations, financial reporting schedules, board materials, and audit-ready nonprofit finance documentation.

LightEdge Solutions Data Center Network Operations Technician

Nov 2020 - Present

Support mission-critical infrastructure, customer operations, asset controls, service coordination, and compliance records across network and facility systems.

United States Army Supply Specialist & Financial Management Technician

Nov 2015 - May 2019

Coordinated aviation and ground logistics; supported budgets, reconciliations, reporting, and accountability for more than $10 million in operational expenditures.

Wilgus Associates Junior Reconciliation Accountant

Jun 2014 - Jul 2015

Maintained ledgers, performed bank reconciliations, researched variances, supported month-end close, and helped reduce reconciliation time by 50% through automation.

EDUCATION

San Diego State University, Fowler College of Business - B.S. Finance, expected 2027
San Diego Miramar College - A.S. Business Administration, 2024

RESEARCH & LEADERSHIP

Aztec Investment Fund - Fundamental equity research, thesis development, and AI infrastructure value-chain analysis informed by hands-on data center experience.

CERTIFICATIONS & SKILLS

QuickBooks Online Level 1; Bloomberg Market Concepts; Microsoft Excel (in progress); SIE and FMVA (planned).
Fundamental research, financial modeling, valuation, reporting, reconciliation, portfolio analysis, QuickBooks Online, Excel, Python workflows, and mission-critical operations.